PERSONAL LETTER FROM GERMANY

Young Lady in Germany Writes an Interesting Letter to Her Cousin, L. Scheidemantel

THREE BROTHERS IN WAR

ALTENBURG, S.-A., SEPT. 1, 1914.

Dear Cousin Louis:

We received your kind letter today and were very pleased to hear something from you. The photos are very good, indeed. We all would love to see those dear American friends and relatives some day. We will try to get some family photos for you, too. I would look for some now but haven't time as I want you to receive this letter as soon as possible.

You are all very kind to offer us your home during these troublesome times, but there is no need to leave our dear "Waterland", that has so many triumphant and victorious soldiers. Germany is not at all engulfed, as you are falsely taught, but it proves mightier than ever. Nothing of revolution is here as foreign—especially French and English—newspapers advise you. We only smile at those reports. You should see how Germany in all her parts and classes is agreed. As for us, in our town, we hardly notice any war. There is the same marvelous German discipline as before.

You only seem to get false reports. You don't seem to have heard yet of our great victories in the East and West. I will put down for you all the events. Take a map and you will see that all Belgium is taken by us and that our brave soldiers are already on their way to Paris. Perhaps you may be able and inclined to spread this news in your country, perhaps in the paper of your town.

Our family has become very small. Louis and Karl are fighting in France and the last note we got was from the 21st of August. And poor Fritz is still in Russia and we haven't heard from him for five weeks. We tried to find out where he might be by telegrams and different consular offices, but all in vain. Our last hope is the consul of Switzerland, if he will be able to find out where Fritz is, we shall hear next week. We don't cease praying to God to protect our three boys and send them all home again safe and sound.

Mother is very broken-hearted, she can't sleep at night and her state of health is very poor at present. Father is quiet and speaks little. Care has entered our family circle and, indeed, fate is hard upon us this time. Thank you for rendering any services for us, if we should be in need we shall come and ask you. Fritz—so they say—is under America's protection, as all the prisoners are, but whether he has money to live on or in which part of Russia he is, we do not know.

Give my love to your dear sister and all your friends. Love to yourself. Your cousin, [MISS] MARIECHEN SCHNEIDER.

The foregoing personal letter from a cousin in Germany to Mr. Louis W. Scheidemantel, was given us for publication. It throws an interesting light upon the attitude of the German people in this deplorable war and evinces a spirit to be greatly admired in any people. The list of victories is omitted on account of its length and owing to the fact that the daily press has published them all. It is up to August 30th, just about the time when the German advance into France was being checked. Perhaps had this letter been written a month later the evident note of sadness in it, despite its bravery, would have been deepened. All America sympathizes with Europe in what to us seems a most useless and deplorable war.—EDITOR.

Cliff School Gives a Dance.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend a dance Saturday night, Oct. 10, at Maverick School House, Cliff, Texas, for the benefit of the school. The refreshments will consist of barbecued meat with light bread and pickles, ice-cream and soda water.

Weather Report.

Hondo, Texas, for September, 1914: Total rain-fall, 1.22 inches; since Jan. 1st, 19.29 inches. Temperature, highest, 96 on 12th; lowest, 54 on 25th. H. E. HAASS, U. S. Observer.

An Old Settler Gone.

Christian Bator, one of the original Daniels Colonists who settled D'Hanis in 1844, died at his home near that place at 8:45 o'clock, Wednesday evening, September 30, 1914. His remains were interred in the W. O. W. Cemetery at D'Hanis early Friday morning. The deceased was born in Germany January 29, 1833. He arrived in America in January, 1847, and one month later settled with his parents at D'Hanis where he has since resided.

In 1866, he was married to Miss Louisa Brieden to which union ten children were born, four boys and six girls. Two of the girls are dead. Besides the surviving children, there are 26 grandchildren, one brother, Ben Bator, and two sisters, Mrs. Val. Nester and Mrs. Theresa Deckert, to mourn his demise. A good man and progressive citizen has gone to his reward. Peace to his ashes.

How About It?

In discussing the matter with Mr. H. B. Hudson of the Hondo Auto Sales Co., he informed us that a brand new Ford Chassis—that is the frame-work, engine, tank, wheels and everything except the body of the car—could be purchased and fitted up complete in his garage to carry one of the chemical fire extinguishers and men enough to operate it at a cost of a little over $400.00.

What do the people of Hondo think about it?

It is very important to reach a fire in the shortest possible time if any good is to be accomplished with a chemical extinguisher.

This would afford the quickest means of reaching a fire and the cost would be comparatively small. Let's do something about it.

Died.

Mrs. August Martin (nee Schweers) died at her home in the northern part of the county at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 25, 1914, of stomach trouble. Her remains were brought to Hondo and buried in the new cemetery late Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. F. Koch, pastor of the New Fountain German Methodist church, performed the last sad rites.

The deceased was about 47 years of age and is survived by her husband and 7 children, 2 boys and 5 girls. She was the eldest daughter of the late Wm. Schweers of Quihi and has many relatives to mourn her untimely demise.

The Anvil Herald extends sympathy to those who mourn and especially the motherless children.

Mrs. Andrew Schuehle paid a visit to Mrs. Edwin Balzen.

Mr. Cernel Haby visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. Joe Schott and son, Cernel, passed through here enroute to New Fountain.

Be Strong.

Be strong!
We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do and loads to lift.
Shun not the struggle; face it. 'Tis God's gift.

Be strong!
Say not the days are evil—who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce; O shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be strong!
It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
How long the battle goes; the day how long.
Faint not, fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.

—Selected.

QUESTION of the hour—bought a bale of cotton yet?

To some the wolf at the door assumes the form of a bill collector!

ANYHOW the approach of winter affords one consoling thought—the ice-man will soon be froze out!

GOVERNOR Colquitt has called the Legislature in third special session. As if the European war were not trouble enough!

THE tang we feel in our toes these autumn mornings reminds us that it will soon be our solemn and patriotic duty to go to the relief of the distressed cotton section of our country and buy a—pair of socks!

WHEN two friends fall out they generally both regret it; and if they are both on the square, they will be each willing to meet the other halfway, and their friendship becomes stronger than ever.—The Marathon Hustler.

VIEWS at this distance, one can but conclude that Germany's objective in invading Belgium and France has eluded her grasp and henceforth her fighting must be on the defensive with every thing to lose and nothing to gain.

WAR has broken out in a fresh spot in Mexico and now there is talk of Carranza following Huerta, et al, into exile. How long will it be before there will be nothing more for the patriots(?) to steal in that distraught country?

IRRESOLUTION is a worse vice than rashness. He that shoots best may sometimes miss the mark, but he that shoots not at all can never hit it. Irresolution loosens all the joints of a state; like an ague, it shakes not this and that limb, but all the body is at once in a fit. The irresolute man is lifted from one place to another; so hatcheth nothing, but addles all his actions.—Feltham.

"In the midst of life, there is death." Man struggles for wealth and fame till the Angel of death calls him, and then, like a pebble dropped into the still water of a lake, there is a slight ripple and the waters are as calm as before. The rich man is grasping for more and the pauper sits and dreams of wealth. One makes a little more of a rifle, as they sink beneath the surface, than the other; but the dark waters close over them alike and both are forgotten.—The Marathon Hustler.

WHEN IT LOOKS DARK to my weak or ailing woman,

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription comes to her help. For "female complaints," pains, internal inflammation, or ulceration, bearing-down sensations, and all chronic weaknesses and derangements, this is the proven remedy. It's the only one so sure that it can be guaranteed. "Favorite Prescription" will benefit or cure in the case of every tired and afflicted woman.

Mrs. J. J. FORD, 100 South Washington Ave., Dallas, Texas, says:

"I have been some ten years since I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription but I can't say too much in favor of what it did for me and have spoken highly of it many times as I am a nurse and have used it in many cases myself. I say this may be a help to some one who is afflicted."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

This paper has not given that thought and study to Governor Colquitt's proposed State Bank which it gives to questions of far less moment before taking a positive stand either for or against them. In fact, the subject is so important and the proposition so far-reaching it behooves all to maintain an open mind so that it can be discussed in fairness to the end that its advantages can be judiciously weighed against whatever may be its disadvantages. With this desire to see its advantages and willingness to accept it if it seems after due consideration to be good, we are frank to say we oppose it on general principles. In the first place, it is proposed primarily on account of the crisis which now confronts the cotton-growers—a crisis which may have passed, or to which the country may have naturally adjusted itself, before the machinery of such a gigantic undertaking can be gotten into working order. It does not appear to us to be the part of wisdom to undertake such a gigantic innovation as a remedy for a temporary affliction. In the second place, the centralizing of such an enormous amount of wealth as twenty million dollars in the hands of a few politicians to control and manipulate does not auger well for the future welfare of the state. And in the third place, we seriously object to the state permanent school fund being made a pawn in such a gigantic scheme of speculation. These are our superficial views of the matter. Let us have light. These columns are open to communications from any one who wishes to express an opinion pro or con.

Infinite toil would not enable you to sweep away a mist; but by ascending a little, you may often look over it altogether. So it is with our moral improvement; we wrestle fiercely with a vicious habit, which could have no hold upon us if we ascended into a higher moral atmosphere.—Helps.

In Memory.

With a heavy heart we would drop a tear to the memory of little Dorothy Virginia Mangold, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mangold, who died at the home of Mrs. Theresa Mangold Saturday at 4:20 p. m., September 19th, 1914.

The little one was brought to town by her parents Sunday morning from their home at Noonan for medical attention. She had been sick only nine days at the time of her death, and all the care and love that skilled physicians and an anxious household could apply for her comfort were brought into play but of no avail.

Deceased was one year, seven months and thirteen days old at the time of her demise.

The little corpse was laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, followed by a large assembly of sorrowing relatives and friends. Rev. Father Heinzelmeier performed the last sad rites. We join in sympathy with the bereaved and grief-stricken parents.

As a little silvery circular ripple, set in motion by the falling pebble, expands from its inch of radius to the whole compass of a pool, so there is not a child—not an infant Moses—placed, however softly in his bulrush ark upon the sea of time, whose existence does not stir a ripple, gyrating outward and on, until it shall have moved across and spanned the whole ocean of God's eternity, stirring even the river of life and the fountains at which the angels drink.—Elihu Burritt.

It is my custom every night to run all over the words and actions of the past day; for why should I fear the sight of my errors when I can admonish and forgive myself. I was a little too hot in such a dispute; my opinion might have been as well spared, for it gave offense and did no good at all. The thing was true; but all truths are not to be spoken at all times.—Seneca.

It is either a very brave or a very desperate man who would assume to give advice as to the disposition of the cotton crop at the present time. Its future price is more uncertain than the wind and the best one can do is to study his own circumstances and make the best of the situation he can.

"To any sufferer of catarrh of the stomach, I am glad to tell my friends or sufferers of catarrh that seventeen years ago I was past work of any kind, due to stomach troubles. I tried almost every known remedy without any results.

"Finally I tried Peruna, and am happy to say I was benefited by the first bottle, and after using a full treatment I was entirely cured.

"I am now seventy years old, and am in good health, due to always having Peruna at my command. I would not think of going away from home for any length of time without taking a bottle of Peruna along for emergency.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

Do We Guarantee Positions?

We do better than that, because the business and professional men in this and surrounding cities guarantee them for us by calling upon us for more qualified stenographers and bookkeepers than we have available to supply. That is about the strongest guarantee, and at the same time endorsement of a school, that can be furnished.

Worth investigating, isn't it? When it costs but a postal or letter.

WHEN MIRANDA FORGOT

By CONSTANCE NESSLER.

"I mustn't postpone dusting them another minute," said Miranda, as she opened her bookcase door in order to find room for a new volume and noticed how the tops of the old ones were covered by a layer of dust.

With Miranda the dusting of books was a prolonged and serious ordeal, usually attended with much sentimental reminiscence. She couldn't merely wipe the dear backs and faces of her favorite volumes without renewing acquaintance with them. Generally before she had reached the second shelf she was seated on the floor, a pile of books about her, the solid duster lying by her side and some once loved novel open at her favorite scene. It was where Lord Ormont had confessed his inability to exist without his Evelina, or where the spirited Miss Bennett had dismissed the haughty Mr. Darcy, or where—but there was no stopping and no dusting when once Miranda had fairly started on this dual feat of dusting her books and refreshing her memory.

This morning she banged the book backs and flitted her duster without a pause until she reached the George Elliot shelf, and noticed a telltale vacancy in that beloved set.

"It's 'Daniel Deronda' that has gone," wailed Miranda as she carefully dusted the top of each volume after giving it a bang that was enough to bring all the characters to life again. "And I know who has it. I loaned it over a year ago to Lina Helft, and though I have seen her a dozen times since then she has never mentioned the book. And now she has moved to the suburbs and I suppose she has taken my book with her and will never think of it again or remember that she has broken my set.

"It is like breaking up a family to lose one out of a set," she continued. "And I think that there ought to be a special punishment devised for people who borrow books and never return them. Now, when I borrow a book I always read it at once and then put it on a table in plain sight so that I shall remember to return it."

"I Wonder Who Gave It to Me."

The fourth shelf was full of painful memories for Miranda and she hastened through the slapping and dusting process without stopping to peep within a single cover. The fact was that this particular fourth shelf set was a subscription set and had caused Miranda many an anxious tear. She had paid $2 a month for it, having in a moment of bookish weakness and vanity put her name to some book agent's pledge, and there had been times when it was difficult to get the $2, and when she was obliged to ask the agent to call again. How she hated the sight of that man and how sick she was of those books before she had paid for them!

"I suppose I ought to read them," she said to herself as she gave each of the 17 volumes a spiteful slap, "but really, I know I should see that agent's face on every page. And, besides, they are the kind of book one likes to own but doesn't care to read. They are not the sort that are what Charles Lamb called 'take downable,' and some day I mean to take them to some second-hand book store and see what I can get for them."

On the fifth shelf Miranda came across a volume that did not look familiar, though the story itself was one with which she was well acquainted.

"Why, I had forgotten that I had a copy of 'The Cloister and the Hearth,'" said she, as she opened the volume and glanced at the name of an old friend inscribed on the fly leaf. "Dear me! I must have borrowed this book ages ago and then, after I had read it, put it among my own books and just forgot all about it. And I don't know what has become of Elsie Bradon or whether she is Elsie Bradon now. I really don't see how I could have failed to do with this book of hers as I always do with borrowed books—that is, keep them in sight until they are returned—but I don't suppose this belongs to any set, and so it will not be missed like my 'Daniel Deronda.' But perhaps I had better keep it out and see if I cannot look up Elsie, for though I can hardly recall the circumstances of my borrowing I have a faint recollection of Elsie's telling me that this was her favorite novel, and that she wanted my opinion of it.

"Well, I suppose she has her opinion of me by this time!"—Chicago Daily News.

The First National Bank OF HONDO, TEXAS
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $70,000.00

First, largest and oldest established bank in Medina county. Prompt attention to all banking matters entrusted to us.

TO THE PUBLIC:

On June 30, 1913, there were 15,283.57 miles of railroad in Texas. Very little has been added since that time. They have 69,259 employes at work every day in the year. These railroads have a capitalization (stocks and bonds) of $31,615 per mile. They are really worth more. The total cost of construction up to June 30, 1913, averaged $39,975 per mile as shown by Table No. 10, page 397, Annual Report Railroad Commission, 1913.

The capitalization of railroads in other countries and the United States as a whole, per mile of road, is as follows:

England.....$269,496	Spain.....$88,368
Belgium.....189,023	Japan.....84,361
France.....143,425	Russia.....83,496
Brazil.....142,080	Holland.....82,796
Italy.....124,116	Servia.....78,373
Austria.....120,311	Hungary.....69,084
Switzerland 117,953	United States 63,944
Germany.....116,666	Texas.....31,615

The capitalization of the railroads in the United States is less than in any of the above named countries, and in Texas it is a little less than half as much as the average for the United States.

The bonds of the Texas roads amount to only $23,212.00 per mile. As a rule, no dividends are ever paid on railroad stocks in Texas, and therefore the amount of stocks is without influence, so far as the financial condition of the roads is concerned. The interest on the bonds, however, must be paid in order to keep the roads out of bankruptcy, and as such interest is supposed to be paid out of earnings, the public is interested in knowing that the bonds do not exceed the value of the roads—in other words, that they are not watered. We are glad to be able to state, positively, that there are no watered bonds on Texas railroads. And the same is true as to stocks, taking the roads of the state as a whole.

It costs an immense amount of money to operate the 15,283 miles of railroad in this state, and as you pay the same, in freight and passenger fares, you, of course, are vitally interested in knowing whether the roads are collecting enough, or more than is necessary.

The Annual Reports of the Railroad Commission of Texas show that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the railroads of Texas lacked $3,282,493.51 of collecting enough to pay their operating and necessary charges and expenses. For the year ending June 30, 1913, they lacked $1,601,378.31 of collecting enough, and while the figures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, are not all available, enough is known to make certain that the railroads of this state will have a net deficit or loss of about Eight Million Dollars.

In arriving at these deficits, or losses, no account is taken of permanent improvements and betterments. These, if considered, would add to the deficits, or shortages.

Thus it is plainly to be seen, and must be acknowledged by all fair-minded men, that the railroads of Texas are confronted by a serious and dangerous situation. Indeed some of them have been unable to escape Federal Court receiverships, and none of them have the funds urgently needed and which the interests of the public require.

Every railroad in Texas now in the hands of, and operated by, receivers, was valued, and the amount of the stocks and bonds thereof approved and limited by the Railroad Commission under the Texas Stock and Bond Law. Therefore, it is certain, over-capitalization is not the cause of their financial distress.

We think it is due to you, who pay the bills and need the service of the railroads, to show the above and actual condition of the properties devoted to your use.

We beg to assure you that we are doing our very best to give you good service.

We respectfully and earnestly ask, and desire, your help and assistance in keeping down and preventing all useless and unjust expenses and charges against the railroads. We do this for the reason that you pay the expenses, and suffer the loss of service necessarily resulting when the expenses and fixed charges exceed the income of the roads. You therefore have a direct interest in the matter.

We respectfully submit that it is but fair and just that the railroads be permitted to earn what the law says they are entitled to,—a fair return on the value of the property devoted to your use.

Nothing more is asked nor expected.

Respectfully,

General Managers Texas Railroads

The Magic Washing Stick.

"The Magic Washing Stick is just fine. It did just what you said it would do and the clothes were so nice and white with all that hard rubbing left off," writes Mrs. Sarah Goodale, Preston, Texas. The Magic Stick is not a soap nor a washing powder. Sold by grocers and druggists, three 10c sticks for 25c, or by mail from A. B. Richards Medicine Co., Sherman, Texas.

Why Not Publish It

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by All Dealers.

Even a hot-headed man gets cold feet occasionally.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly. The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children, 50c.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by All Dealers.

A man may have reasons for trying to deceive others, but way he should try to deceive himself is a mystery.

The Magic Washing Stick.

"All glory to the Magic Washing Stick—my clothes were as white as snow," writes Mrs. Sallie Cummings, Marquez, Texas. Not a soap nor a washing powder but a peculiar article which makes dirty clothes clean and beautiful without a bit of rubbing. Sold by grocers and druggists, three 10c sticks for 25c, or by mail from A. B. Richards Medicine Co., Sherman, Texas.

The world is charitable enough to forgive the man who writes poetry only because he needs the money.

Children that are pale, sickly and peevish, with dark rings under the eyes, fickle appetite, and who appear to get no nourishment from the food they eat are surely suffering from worms. Give them White's Cream Vermifuge and note the wonderful improvement. They soon take on flesh and are rosy, active and cheerful. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Every woman imagines that she shows up well in a décolleté gown—but not every woman can prove it.

Chronic rheumatism contracts the muscles, distorts the joints and undermines the strength. A powerful penetrating and relieving remedy will be found in Ballard's Snow Liniment. It restores strength and suppleness to the aching limbs. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The best thing a knacker can do for his home town is to purchase a railway ticket one way and use it.

When the bowels become irregular you are uncomfortable and the longer this condition exists the worse you feel. You can get rid of this misery quickly by using Herbine. Take a dose on going to bed and see how fine you feel next day. Price 50c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by All Dealers.

Every successful man knows more about his own business than he does about other men's.

The Magic Washing Stick.

"I cannot speak highly enough in praise of the Magic Washing Stick. It saves half the labor in washing. Makes the clothes sweet, clean and white as snow without the use of rubbing," writes Mrs. R. M. Cardwell, Forney, Texas. Sold by grocers and druggists three 10c sticks for 25c, or by mail from A. B. Richards Medicine Co., Sherman, Texas.

One kind of a cereal story is the rice thrown after the departing bride and what she married.

Joints that ache, muscles that are drawn or contracted should be treated with Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the spot where it is needed and relieves suffering. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The background in some portraits is the best thing about them—if it is far enough back.

It Always Does The Work.

"I like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy better than any other," writes R. E. Roberts, Homer City, Pa. "I have taken it off and on for years and it has never failed to give the desired results." For sale by All Dealers.

Many a man who paints the town red would object if his wife painted her cheeks.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Occasionally a young widow gets even with an old bachelor by marrying him.

A good remedy for a bad cough is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It heals the lungs and quiets irritation. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Many a large man is a small citizen.

Stomach Overworked.

Eating between meals is a habit usually left over from childhood. Growing things need nourishing in small and frequent doses. Grown-ups merely require to repair the waste of the body—and the stomach is a comparatively small organ. Undoubtedly in many bodies it is kept stretched and in the same condition of an abused piece of rubber. How can it do its work?

The Magic Washing Stick.

"The Magic Washing Stick is the finest thing in the world. Cleans the clothes without rubbing—makes the whitest clothes I ever saw. I cannot do without it anymore. All you say is true, it does all you say it will. I would give it for nothing I have ever used. Hope every lady will try it," writes Mrs. W. F. Gammill, Ashdown, Ark. This peculiar article is sold by grocers and druggists, three 10c sticks for 25c or by mail from A. B. Richards Medicine Co., Sherman, Texas.

When the family skeleton rattles, the neighbors have their windows open.

Toned Up Whole System.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done more for me than I ever dared hope for," writes Mrs. Esther Mae Baker, Spencerport, N. Y. "I used several bottles of these tablets a few months ago. They not only cured me of bilious attacks, sick headaches and that tired out feeling, but toned up my whole system." For sale by All Dealers.

Don't hug a delusion—especially if she is the sweetheart of a burler man.

Admiral de Ruyter—Greatest of Holland's Sea Captains

LIKE our own Paul Jones, de Ruyter knew no such word as surrender. His life from boyhood up was one constant battle against the enemies of his country. He defeated the proud English navy in two wars. One of his sea battles with the English fleet lasted four solid days, and ended with the advantage resting with de Ruyter. Later he fought several great naval duels against the combined English and French fleets, and while his victories were not decisive, he won for Holland undying glory. The great de Ruyter abhorred tyranny of every kind, just as do the Hollanders of to-day. When prohibitory enactments are proposed to those of the blood of Holland they vote to a man against it. They are wherever found unalterably opposed to any legislation which would make the many suffer for the faults of a few. Hollanders know that there is no evil in the barley brews and light wines of their fathers—EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. In America we have thousands of these splendid people, and Personal Liberty always obtains where they reside. For 57 years Anheuser-Busch have enjoyed the trade of those of Holland blood because every day of these 57 years has been devoted to the honest brewing of Barley-Malt and Hop brews. It is not to be wondered that 7,500 people are daily required to keep pace with the natural demand for Budweiser. Its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH - ST. MANY MANSIONS IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE

Jesus Is Preparing One of These For His Bride.

HEAVENLY HOME FOR LOYAL

Pastor Russell Says the Jews Hoped For Earthly Paradise Restored—Jesus'
Teachings Concerning a Heavenly Nature and Home Were New—His Leaving Was Necessary, but He Assured Them He Would Come Again.
Meantime the Spirit of Truth Would Comfort Them.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 15.—One of Pastor Russell's discourses here today
was from the text:
"In My Father's House are many mansions. . . . I go to prepare a place for you. . . .
I will come again to receive you to Myself."—John xiv,
2, 3.

For more than four thousand years before the Savior came, no suggestion had been made respecting any home for humanity aside from this earth. The paradise of Eden, lost through disobedience, and God's image in humanity, almost obliterated by sin and death, God promised to restore. The right to life forfeited by Adam for himself and his race, God purposed to restore to all the willing and obedient. But all these blessings were to come through a Redeemer, the Mediator of the New Covenant, the Messiah.

Humanity knew not the possibilities of Restitution, but Israel had the fact typified in their Jubilee year of Restitution, which occurred every fifty years. They also had typical sacrifices of a Passover lamb and Atonement Day offerings, representing some means by which God justly met for them the requirements of His own Law. They realized not that this satisfaction of Justice would be accomplished by the death of the very Redeemer who subsequently would be the Restorer.

Their minds naturally dwelt especially upon the great fact that Messiah was to be of Jewish stock; and that Israel was to have the first chance of the choicest blessings in connection with Messiah's Kingdom. As they waited for Messiah and His Kingdom, they fondly anticipated their own national blessing. Seemingly, they overlooked the fact that the blessing would be an individual one, in harmony with the Divine arrangement. They hoped for a resurrection from the dead "at the last day,"—in the great Seventh Thousand-Year Day or Epoch, and expected it to bring them from the sleep of death back to earthly conditions.

Some of them hoped for a "better resurrection" than the majority, because of their loyalty to God and their willingness to suffer for righteousness;
but even these expected to be, not angels, but men. Was not Abraham himself promised that all the land which he could see should, eventually, be his?
What could this mean except that he would be resurrected, as an earthly being, to enjoy this promised inheritance? St. Stephen points out that Abraham never received, in fulfillment of God's promise, as much of that land "as to set his foot upon." (Acts vii, 5.) Undoubtedly, therefore, the entire promise of the land is future. The possession will come to Abraham, and will be given to his seed, his posterity, after him.

Heavenly Promises—"Like Unto Angels."

God's plan was allowed to rest as though forgotten until Jesus began to accomplish another and different work.

He began to call the Bride class from amongst mankind—both Jews and Gentiles. Without explaining the full details, He invited all who desired to become associated in His Kingdom to take up their cross and follow Him. He promised them a joint-heirship with Himself in His Kingdom. He told them that those who attain unto that Age and the resurrection, would neither marry nor be given in marriage—
"like unto the angels"—sexless.—Luke xx, 35, 36.

No wonder the Apostles were surprised! No wonder Nicodemus hesitated to endorse something so different from what he had anticipated in the way of blessing; and he came to Jesus by night to inquire further! No wonder the Master's words were perplexing when He said, "Ye must be born again!" No wonder Nicodemus, in perplexity, asked about this spirit birth and found the answers perplexing! Jesus did not attempt to give him a full explanation, but merely said that if he had difficulty in understanding earthly things, how could he expect to understand Heavenly things.—John iii, 12.

Restitution Waits, but Not Abandoned.
The whole matter is plain in the light of the New Testament teaching. Before the time for blessing the world, God is selecting therefrom a class to constitute the Bride of Christ, the faithful Little Flock. The Church is to be associated with Him in blessing the human family with Restitution. But the Bride class itself is to experience a change of nature from human to spiritual. This was difficult for the Aposles to understand. Their minds would continually revert to an earthly kingdom, but the Master repeatedly drew their attention away from the earthly.

He declared, "My Kingdom is not of this Age," and told the disciples that He would come again in power and great glory, and all the holy angels with Him; and that then He would sit upon the Throne of His Glory—upon which they would sit with Him, if faithful even unto sacrificial death.

The Heavenly Mansions.

The Lord endeavored to draw the minds of His followers away from the earthly hopes of an earthly kingdom, which they held in common with all Jews. The disciples knew of various orders of beings on the angelic plane—cherubim, seraphim and ordinary angels. Jesus made no suggestion of changing His disciples into any of these angelic orders. Rather, He gave them to understand that they would constitute a new order of creatures. The questions then naturally arose, Is there a possibility of having a still different order of beings on the Heavenly plane?
Did not the creation of man a little lower than angels imply a sufficient variety of creations on the angelic plane and higher?

These questions would seem proper enough; and to these our Lord's words make answer: "In My Father's House are many mansions," many apartments, many divisions. Yet all are blessed, all are in full accord with Him, and with each other. "I go to prepare a place for you." My followers—a Heavenly mansion.

St. Peter, discussing the subject, tells us that in God's providence the Church is not only a New Creation, but a creation on a higher plane than any other of God's creation. St. Paul says that our Lord Jesus, having finished the work which the Father gave Him to do,
"ascended on High," to the right hand of the Divine Majesty, to the place of chief favor. He declares that this position is "far above angels, principal-ties and powers and every name that is named."—Ephesians i, 21.

St. John, speaking of the Church, declares that we may not yet fully appreciate what we shall be, but we may "know that, when He shall appear [our Redeemer], we shall be like Him;
for we shall see Him as He is." (I John iii, 2.) St. Peter, however, tells us the real height to which the Church, the Bride of Christ, is to be exalted. He says, God hath given "unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these [working in us His will] we might become partakers of the Divine nature."—II Peter i, 4.

The Heavenly Three.

Following the testimony of the Word of God, we recognize Jehovah God Himself, from everlasting to everlasting God, the Head, the King, the Father, of whom are all things. Next to the Father we recognize our Heavenly Lord, whose name at first was the Logos, the Word of God, His Messenger, who subsequently was made flesh, dwelt among us and redeemed us; and who, as a reward, has been exalted to the Divine nature and is set at the right hand of Jehovah God, to begin His work of blessing mankind. He waits also until the Church, His Bride, shall have been completed and shall have passed beyond the veil, to be forever with Him on the Divine plane,
His Joint-heir.

These are the Heavenly Three—all of the Divine Nature, far above all other natures, all other planes of existence. Yet always we are to remember that the Head of the Church is Christ, and the Head of Christ is God, as St. Paul declares: for although all of God's blessings are by the Son, yet those blessings are all from the Father.—I Corinthians viii, 6.

In passing, we should note how these Scriptures and all the Scriptures continually show that the Heavenly Father was not His own Son and that the Heavenly Son was not His own Father. In our text the Master declares, "In My Father's House are many mansions." Jesus, the chief Son, has special privileges and special power; and it is by the Father's arrangement that the Bride, the Lamb's Wife, is to be brought into the highest of Heavenly mansions, the Divine nature, to be joint-heir with her Lord in His Messianic reign and in His everlasting glory thereafter.

"I Go to Prepare a Place."

But why did Jesus need to go to prepare a place? His disciples did not wish Him to go and leave them. Whenever He spoke along this line they were grieved and perplexed; and on one occasion St. Peter brought upon himself a special rebuke by saying,
"Be it far from Thee, Lord; these things shall not happen unto Thee."
The disciples were like children. They had absolute confidence that they were to share with Messiah the glories of His Messianic Kingdom. They wondered why Jesus did not stay with them and attend to the establishment of the Kingdom at that time, or if it were necessary to wait for a season,
why He might not tarry with them.
Instead of going to the Father as He had often told them that He would do.

Our Lord did not wish to give them any intimation respecting the length of the Gospel Age, lest the knowledge should discourage them. Therefore He merely said, "It is expedient for you that I go away," necessary for you.
Unless He should go away, the Holy Spirit would not come upon them. They would not receive that power from on High, of which He had told them,
which they saw exemplified in Him, and which they experienced when He put His power upon them and sent them forth as His representatives to work miracles and to proclaim the Gospel of the Kingdom.

After Pentecost, when enlightened by the Holy Spirit, they could understand the necessity for Jesus' leaving and for Him receiving the Holy Spirit begetting to the Divine nature. They, like all mankind, were children of Adam and therefore inheritors of his death sentence. The Father could not, according to His own just laws, recognize sinners as sons. Before they could receive the Divine begetting of the Holy Spirit they must first be justified in the Divine sight.

It was to justify the Household of Faith that Jesus ascended on High,
"there to appear in the presence of God for us." He imputed to us before the Father the merit of His own sacrifice, and proposed to adopt us as His members. Then Divine Justice accepted the Advocate's proposal, and that meant the acceptance of our proffered sacrifices, as the members of Jesus.

Ten days after our Lord left His Apostles, the Pentecostal blessing came upon them. St. Peter explains that it was the Heavenly Father's recognition of His acceptance of the followers of Jesus who were entering into covenant relationship through Him by the covenant of self-sacrifice. The transaction involved all subsequent members of the Household of Faith to the end of this Age. As a result, the Holy Spirit came upon the consecrated,
they were to be made children of God, and "if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ, our Lord, if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together."
—Romans viii, 17.

Growth in Grace.

Mistakenly, in the past, many of us have supposed justification to be the goal of the Christian—merely the forgiveness of sins. Now we see that this was a great mistake. Now we see that justification by faith is only a stepping-stone to sanctification—the begetting of the Holy Spirit as New Creatures in Christ. Moreover, we see that even our sanctification by the begetting of the Holy Spirit is not sufficient, nor our goal.

The Spirit-begotten ones must grow in grace, in knowledge, in all the fruits and graces of the Holy Spirit. They must be tested and proved as to their loyalty and faithfulness. Fiery trials, testings, tribulations, must be allowed to come against them to prove the depth and sincerity of their love for God. Graciously, their testings are not along the lines of the flesh, which is acknowledged to be imperfect, weak, and which is acceptable as a sacrifice only through the merit of Jesus. Their testings and acceptance are according to their mind, their will, as New Cretures in Christ.

"I Will Come Again."

The Master would be absent during the period of the selection of the Bride class—in Heaven itself. Yet by His Spirit or Power, the Holy Spirit, which is also the Spirit or Power of the Father, He would have full knowledge of all the affairs of His people and would providentially make "all things work together for good to them that love Him." Suffer they must; endure trials and testings they must, in order to prove their loyalty even unto death; but His grace would be sufficient for them, and His strength would be made perfect in their weaknesses; and He would never leave them. In the sense of abandoning them, so long as they would abide in Him by faith and by loyalty of heart-intention, He would overrule all things for their good.

After the selection of the full number of the Bride class, He would come again to receive them unto Himself.
He would come relatively in the same sense in which He went away, in the sense in which He has not been present throughout the Age. He would come in the sense of taking charge of the affairs of the world. He will take to Himself His great Power and begin His reign. His first kingly office will be in respect to His Church. He will call His own servants and reckon with them first. He will reward the faithful by allowing the unfaithful to pass into tribulation with the world.

As Satan has for a long time been
"the prince of the power of the air,"
"the prince of this world," so Messiah, after binding Satan for a thousand years, will assume His rightful title as the King of this world, the King of Glory. His Power will also be the "Power of the Air," or a spirit power—but, unlike that of Satan, it will be a Holy Spirit power. His saints will be called away with Him, to share His Throne and Empire, "the Power of the Air," His Spiritual Kingdom.

Thus the Bride of Christ will be completed, when the foreordained number of the Elect shall have been found and proved worthy by trials and testings, and shall have gone beyond the veil. Then the glorious Kingdom of Messiah will begin its work for mankind, restoring and blessing, very much as Israel had understood and as all the Holy Prophets had explained. Describing the coming blessings, which will begin with Natural Israel and extend to all people, St.
Peter says, "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord—and He shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you, whom the Heavens must retain until the Times of Restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the Holy Prophets since the world began."—Acts iii, 19-21.

I exhort you, brethren, in the words of the Apostle Paul, "Let us fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into His rest, any of us should seem to come short" (Hebrews iv, 1). If we have been begotten by the Holy Spirit, let us walk in harmony therewith. Let us endure faithfully the necessary trials and discipline, that we may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.
"For if ye do these things, ye shall never fall; for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."—II Peter i, 11.

There's No Sense In Taking Calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tonic will fix up your liver safely and won't "knock you out" a day. A man feels very little like working and a child don't want to go to school when bilious or constipated. If you try calomel to cure you, the chances are that you will be so weakened by its after-effects that you will be laid up for two or three days more. So we say "Don't take Calomel!" You can get a perfect remedy to take the place of Calomel at W. H. Windrow's that is guaranteed to relieve constipation and liven up the liver just as quickly as calomel, but without any of the bad after-effects of calomel. The name of this medicine is Dodson's Liver Tonic. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable tonic that mildly stimulates the liver and causes it to work just right without any danger of salivation. If it doesn't fully satisfy you, you may have your money back from the store where you bought Dodson's.

ALL READY FOR STATE FAIR

Splendid Programme of Events Will Be Witnessed.

ACRES OF FINE EXHIBITS.

Amazing Novelties and Features. Educational, Entertaining—Some Wonderful Improvements Will Be Noted in Buildings and Roadways.

Dallas: During the sixteen days of the State Fair of Texas, which opens Saturday, October 17, under the most auspicious conditions, with such splendid preparation, increase of exhibits and with a whirlwind of amusements of the highest order, every promise made by the fair management to make this year's fair and exposition the best of its kind ever held in Texas or America will be fully carried out and demonstrated.

Every department will be filled to overflowing with an array of exhibits demonstrating the marvelous development of Texas and the southwest in every field of human endeavor. Exhibitors and the general public throughout the Southwest as well as visitors from other sections of the country will find at the State Fair of Texas a rare educational, as well as a vocational opportunity—an enterprise of vital importance and value for the success and betterment of every enterprise and industry in the state.

Indeed, declared the fair management, we are getting in fine shape for "A Different Fair" this year, a greater fair in every way, and one that will appeal to the sound sense of every man, woman and child in Texas, one where instruction and recreation will be blended in perfect harmony and conducted on lines of the highest order.

In the cattle division and champion contests more entries have been made for the State Fair this year than ever before.

Six exhibits and demonstrations of traction and road machines, road graders, cement mixers, hay presses, gas engines and fixtures, farm implements, vehicles and other machinery.

BIG DISPLAY THIS YEAR.

In Vehicles, Implements and Machinery at State Fair of Texas—A Big Educational Feature.

Dallas: "Never have farmers and visitors had such an opportunity as will be presented at the State Fair this year to see such an interesting display of machinery, farm implements and vehicles of every description, as those exhibits will be made on a larger scale than ever before," declared Mr. J. C. Duke, director in charge.

Judging by the amount of space already signed up for exhibits in this department, these displays will be of exceptional interest and many new ideas and improvements in machinery, implements and vehicles will be shown.

As Josh Billings quaintly said: "Tain't no use arguing again' a success." This division of the State Fair of Texas has always been a success and keeps on growing bigger every year. It gives farmers an opportunity of studying the latest and best productions in farm machinery and vehicles, and competent demonstrators will be on hand to explain the merits of their exhibits.

Individual Exhibit Farm Products.

Dallas: "All one can say of a splendid feature at the State Fair year," says Secretary Stratton, "is that it will bring out a fine lot of individual exhibits from farmers who will show what the individual farmer of Texas can do."

The awards of cash prizes and medals for these exhibits as offered by the State Fair of Texas, besides additional special awards as offered by the Texas Land and Mortgage Co., of Dallas, will tend to stimulate interest in these exhibits and entries have been made.
